CANCELLATION & CHANGES AFTER BOOKING POLICY

If the Couple cancels or requests a Date/Time/Location Change:

A couple is not required to pay the remaining balance on services if they cancel at least one week prior to the scheduled ceremony. If the balance has already been paid, it will be returned. Changes to a Couple's wedding date, ceremony start time, or location will be accommodated as the Officiant's availability allows. If the ceremony cannot be satisfactorily rescheduled, cancellation guidelines will apply. Deposits are non-refundable except in extreme circumstances, such as severe weather (see below) or when either party to the marriage must be hospitalized for severe illness/injury before the ceremony can occur.

If the Officiant cancels:

If the Officiant is unable to perform a Couple's ceremony for any reason, a full refund, including initial deposit, will be made. If the Couple chooses to hire a replacement officiant, the Couple will be given full access to any custom ceremony materials created for the Couple up to that point at no charge. If the Officiant delays the start of the wedding (due to late arrival, etc.) the Couple will be refunded 25% of the total ceremony cost.

If Mother Nature cancels:

Ceremonies that must be cancelled due to extreme weather or unsafe conditions affecting the venue and surrounding areas, such as tornadoes, hurricanes, flooding, fire, or severe heat/cold, are fully refundable (including the deposit) and can be rescheduled with the Officiant based on availability.

REVIEW AND ACCEPTANCE OF BOOKING

Booking review and acceptance: A date inquiry, submission of a booking request, or submission of a completed Ceremony Agreement is not an accepted booking. A booking is confirmed only when the Officiant has reviewed and approved the requested ceremony type and content, both parties have signed this Agreement, and the required Deposit is paid within 5 days. Subject to applicable law, Officiant may decline a booking request that falls outside the services described in this Agreement or that would require Officiant to perform or affirm ceremony content inconsistent with Officiant's sincerely held religious beliefs. Officiant evaluates the requested services and ceremony content, not a person's protected characteristics.
